

Two Global Digital Collaborative Competition/Exhibitions for Schools!

Register Fall 2011 - Projects due March 2012

- *Support standards-based, authentic learning
 - *Connect students to their local communities
 - *Increase global awareness, civic responsibility, future thinking
 - *Employ real world, career transferable skills
 - *Engage students in the assessment
 - *Teach students 21st century learning skills
- research, project management, content creation, publishing, digital media

Doors to Diplomacy Global Awareness Issues for middle school & high school students $2,000 scholarships and cash school awards sponsored in part by the US State Deptment focus on global issues including world leadership, environment, economics, science, culture

CyberFair: Dream & Unite! Community Connections for grades 2-12

co-sponsored by the World Future Society & the Project Management Institute focus on local community issues including local history, culture, business, leaders, art, music, sports, health, environment

GlobalSchoolNet.org